DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

I). Species group I:

- 1). Claim 6 is drawn to an induction heating device.
- 2). Claim 7 is drawn to a resistance heating device.

II). Species group II:

- 1). Claim 14 is drawn to the spraying with acid pickling solution.
- 2). Claim 15 is drawn to the immersion in a pickling bath containing said acid pickling solution.

Group I claims 6 and 7 and Group II claims 14 and 15 are mutually exclusive, respectively.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species from each group (groups I-II) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

The following claim(s) are generic: 1-5, 11, 13, and 16-18.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

In group I, the heating devices of claims 6 and 7 lack the same special technical feature because claim 6 heating device uses induction, whereas claim 7 uses resistance.

In group II, claims 14 and 15 lack the same technical feature because claim 14 is drawn to the spraying with acid pickling solution whereas claim 15 is drawn to the immersion in a pickling bath containing said acid pickling solution.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
